As a circulator, you will be signing an oath that says you personally obtained each signature you are submitting. Read the oath carefully and please follow its requirements.

Please make sure each signer is a 2nd District resident.

Elector signatures must be legible. If you can't read a name, the Elections Board probably won't be able to either. Don't be shy about asking a signer to print his/her name.

The signer must indicate his/her residence, including street number, street and municipality (make sure signers indicate whether their municipality is a city, town or village, i.e., City of Racine vs. Town of Dover). Post office and rural route numbers are not sufficient.

Please check to see that the signer indicates the correct date in the far right-hand box.

A person may sign only one nomination paper for a candidate for the Court of Appeals in an election period.

The signatures must be collected prior to January, 2014. We hope to complete this by December 22, 2013.

When you have completed collecting signatures, sign the Certification of Circulation. No one else can sign that certification.

Please return all papers to Lisa Neubauer at 1145 Main Street, Racine, WI 53403.

Thank you. Your help is greatly appreciated.
